

The Morpheus Media Fund is an Indian private equity fund that has been floated in partnership with the investment bank o3 Capital.

Morpheus is a Rs. 900 cr fund that has been set up with the objective of investing in Indian companies that target the domestic consumption economy. These will essentially be consumer-facing companies where brand marketing will be a key success parameter. These marketing-driven sectors include FMCG, Financial services, Retail, Telecom and other Consumer Services such as Education, Healthcare etc.

We are looking for management professionals for an Associate position, with 3-5 years experience in fund management or investment banking, with the requisite talent and drive to contribute to the team.

Based in the Mumbai office, the responsibilities will include conducting industry research, scouting for investment opportunities, performing financial due diligence analysis for private equity fund investments, preparing financial modelling, cash flow analysis and company valuations in support of the investment strategy.

Background:

- a) Top tier undergraduate degree and MBA; CFA a plus
- b) Superior academic achievement demonstrating strong analytical capability
- c) Atleast 3-5 years' experience of broad-based exposure to corporate finance, valuation and/or investment banking, ideally gained within a financial services institution, private equity or management consulting firm

Skills and abilities:

- a) Strong quantitative and analytical skills for evaluating complex transactions and investments
- b) Technical expertise in modelling and financial analysis; other database systems a plus
- c) Excellent presentation and written communication skills
- d) Ability to work independently while functioning as part of a team
- e) Capacity to develop a network of business contacts
- f) Professional presence necessary to establish credibility with various players in the ecosystem
- g) High degree of energy, initiative, motivation
- h) Ability to express technical analysis in concise, clear manner
- i) Team player, detail oriented, creative thinker
- j) Multi-tasker – work with different individuals on multiple projects
- k) Ability to work in a time constrained environment

Location: Mumbai